

Sphen and Magic

Down under is where it happened.
two same sex partners became foster parents.
How it hit the news around the world.
Sphen and Magic were their names.
There was a courtship period,
they would bow and sing to one another.
It's a Gento tradition after all.

On occasions,
people flocked to see them,
some flew in, and said,
it was a magic moment, in their lives.

Sphen and Magic,
fostered Laura in 2018
In 2020 they fostered Clancy.

Sphen and Magic Divided their parenting time equally.
No slagging off
from parenting.
They respected, each other,
they did.
Successful they were, too.

It wasn't the first time it had occured. It had happened before, Someone had observed it in 1901,

or there about.
That was the first time it was recorded.
Labelled they were as perverts.
Now, accounts of their liaison
are taught in schools.
Social Studies , don't you see!
That is, in Australia,
no homophobic name calling now.

Suddenly, the body of Sphen was spotted. His body was examined.
"He died of natural causes," they said.
They decided to show Magic,
Sphen's body. It had to be done.
To stop him from a wondering where he was.
He had to know the fate of Sphen.
If not, he would go searching for him.
Afterall,
they had spent half their lives together.

Sphen's body was brought before Magic.
he recognized his partner and sang out.
The other Gentoo joined in.
All singing all together they were.
A Gentoo, requiem no doubt!
